Conflicts of interest occur in all business sectors, but identifying, disclosing, and managing such conflicts is not always a simple matter. This course provides a practical view of conflicts of interest, presented in plain language and with a wide range of examples. The course:

- Explains what is meant by 'interests' and 'conflicts of interest'.
- Describes the various types of conflicts of interest.
- Provides practical tips on how to identify, disclose, and manage conflicts of interest.

This course is aimed at everyone who works for an employer or client.
